CRISP'S GAIETY.-This establishment continues to be filled nightly with our best citizens; attracted by the superior acting of the popular artist, John Drew. This evening he makes his seventh appearance, in two of his most celebrated parts. The first piece is Buckstone's petite comedy of "The Irish Lion," John Drew appearing as Tim More; this will be followed by (for the second and Last time) the never to be forgotten "Handy Andy." with the inimitable "Norah Creina," one of the best songs we have ever heard; the performance concluding with the amusing farce of the "Loan of a Lover," with Miss Williams and Mr. Rowland in the prominent John Drew's name alone is sufficient to fill the Theatre in Nashville at any time.

Mrs. M. D. Howerton, No. 61 Union | to bad habits street, up stairs, is now prepared to make her autumnal exhibition of bonnets and millinery goods generally. A brief inspection of her stock has satisfied us that for elegance and beanty, it is ahead of any she has yet offered to her customers. The bonnets are real gems, which cannot fail to please the lovily sisterhood for whose benefit they have been gotten up. It would seem that good taste could go no further, that the climax of perfection had been realized. Let the ladies go and see if we are not correct.

Mr. Roberts, the American Trage-A rainy night and a thin audience attended the first appearance of this actor. Everyfthing was against him, and yet he succeeded with his audience. In person, Mr. Roberts is not up to middle hight; but he has an intelligent head and an expressive countenauce-things which command attention hight or no hight. Final Sale of Lots in KENTUCKY CITY. On Monday, September 27th, 1858,

Will commence the second and final sale of lots in this growing and most interesting young city. The Trustees in announcing this sale, feel warranted in assuring the public that at no point in the West can there be found equal opportunities for sale and prob-Kentucky City Is located on the east bank of the Mississippi, upon the nearest high land, (or above overflow,) to the mouth of the Ohio river, and for all practical buri-ness purposes, is, and will forever be run mouth of Kentucky City and Columbus contains four thousnd 300 acres, laid off into lots, streets, alleys, &c.;

500 acres in quarter and half lots; the remainder in one, two, four, ten, twenty, forty and sixty acre lots. It is from 4 to 210 feet above high water mark and surrounded by a high, Healthy and Fertile Country, apidly growing in wealth and population, with a saabrious climate, and generous, liberal, calightened and refined society. There is wanted but one further feature to make this the most commanding point on the great "Father of Waters." This was uninterupted communication with the interior of the adjacent States, to accommodate internal commerce and facilitate the interchange of commodities. That want is nowfully met by the established system of

Railroads, which has fixed Kentucky City as the center of a net-work of railroads stretching out and affording con-nections in all directions with the interior and with the cities and lakes of the North and East, and ramiing throughout the whole South and West. That the public may not be led off by suspicions that this is a mere city on paper, we request you to nquire-to come and see for yourselves See the map—Kentucky City is the northern terminus of the Great Mobile and Ohio Railroad—460 miles long. See also our railroad connection by Union City and along the Nashville and Northwestern Railroad via. Paris and Clarksville to Nashville 176 miles. Also, by Kenton and along the Memphis and Ohio Rail-coad to Memphis, about 160 miles. Also, via. Jack-son, Tenn., Holly Springs, Canton and Jackson, Miss. to New Oricans, 500 miles. Also, via. Corinth, thence along the Memphis and Charleston Railroad to Tus-East, and with Atlanta, and Savannah, Georgia Al-so, by the Fulton and Texas Railroad via. Little Rock through to Arkansas and Texas to the Pacific Ocean Also—by the Iron Mountain railroad to St. Louis, 150 miles. Also, by the Steam Ferry Packets, lying to and fro with Cairo and the Illinois Central attread to Chicago, and the whole northwest. Intelligent, enterprising and practical men who will me and see and investigate in person, will vinced that the extraordinary commercial advantages and facilities of railroad and steamboat transportation ossessed by Kentucky City, secures to this point requisites for manufacturing and commercial purposes which must, of nicessity, cause it speedily to become the great intermediate city between the North, and the South at which the productions and manufacares of each section will be concentrated for sale, or to be exchanged for those of the other.

The Hon. Post Master General in a recent report says: "No man can look at the map of this nost popular styles. Furs in great quantity, all the without his finally resting on the mouth of the Ohio is the center of population and commerce of the Insted States."
